CMS Receives Prestigious Diverse Supplier of the Year Award from Huntington Bank

North Canton, OH, November 8, 2022—CMS, a national minority-owned and operated company offering an array of innovative business solutions, was recently recognized as the recipient of Huntington Bank’s 2022 Diverse Supplier of the Year Award. This prestigious award was presented to CMS at the 4th Annual DEI & Culture Awards Ceremony, held September 19, 2022, at Lincoln Theatre in Columbus, Ohio.

CMS was honored to receive Huntington’s esteemed award as the organization reserves such distinction for suppliers that consistently uphold a commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) in their business practices. Dedicated to maintaining an uncompromising commitment to DEI, Huntington has been driven to partner with suppliers who share that mission.

In addition to its commitment to DEI, CMS was recognized by Huntington for its exceptional business practices and its ability to meet the organization’s critical needs during and after the pandemic. CMS went above and beyond to supply Huntington with key items, including various PPE products such as masks, shields and sanitizers, while also navigating the very tight paper and envelope supply chain to ensure that Huntington was never without product. Huntington was impressed by how the supplier was able to continually meet their growing demands during a time of great uncertainty and fluctuation in the supply chain.

CMS is proud to have been selected by Huntington and honored to be one of its key suppliers and business partners. “It is a privilege to work with such a respected and successful organization that is entirely committed to corporate-wide diversity, equity and inclusion,” states Bill Williams, DE&I Manager, CMS. “As a minority-owned and operated company, we share Huntington’s values and commitment, and we look forward to continuing to meet their business needs in the future.”
